www.nage.org

We are the National Association of Government Employees, an organization of members united by the belief in the dignity and worth of workers and the services they provide and dedicated to improving the lives of workers and their families and creating a more just and humane society.

Who Is NAGE?

NAGE a national union representing more than 110,000 extraordinarily diverse bargaining unit employees in 43 states across the country. Our members are organized into four distinct divisions and work for states, municipalities, the federal government, cities, towns, and private corporations. What our members have in common is each provides some type of social or public service.

50,000 MEMBERS

We are healthcare providers, EMS first responders, nurses, office workers, professional workers, law enforcement officers, and federal public servants. We keep America moving.

43 STATES

Our members work and live in 43 states, from Hawaii to Minnesota to Florida--in small towns, cities, and on military bases.

450 LOCALS

We are organized into 450 locals with sizes ranging from under a dozen members to more than 4,000.

110,000 BU Employees

We represent employees in closed shops and right-to-work (for less) workplaces. We stand up for members under the rules of the NLRB and FLRA, and state, county, and municipal regulations.
